Summons (Family Law)

FL-110

Notice to Respondent (name):

John B. Doe

You have been sued. Read the information below and on the next page.

Petitioner's name is:

Jane A. Doe

You have 30 calendar days after this Summons and Petition are served on you to file a Response (form FL-120) at the court and have a copy served on the petitioner. A letter, phone call, or court appearance will not protect you.

If you do not file your Response on time, the court may make orders affecting your marriage or domestic partnership, your property, and custody of your children. You may be ordered to pay support and attorney fees and costs.

For legal advice, contact a lawyer immediately. You can get information about finding a lawyer at the California Courts Online Self-Help Center, the county bar association, or a legal aid office.

NOTICE—RESTRAINING ORDERS ARE ON PAGE 2: These restraining orders are effective against both spouses or domestic partners until the petition is dismissed, a judgment is entered, or the court makes further orders. They are enforceable anywhere in California by any law enforcement officer who has received or seen a copy of them.

FEE WAIVER: If you cannot pay the filing fee, ask the clerk for a fee waiver form. The court may order you to pay back all or part of the fee and costs the court waived for you or the other party.

1. The name and address of the court are:

- ☒ 4175 Main St., Riverside, CA 92501
- ☐ 46-200 Oasis St., Indio, CA 92201
- ☐ 27401 Menifee Center Drive, Menifee, CA 92584
- ☐ 265 N. Broadway, Blythe, CA 92225

2. The name, address, and telephone number of the petitioner (self-represented) are:

Name:

Jane A. Doe

Address:

123 Example Street, Riverside, CA, 92501

Telephone:

(951) 555-1234

Case Number:

RID2400123

Standard Family Law Restraining Orders

FL-110

Starting immediately, you and your spouse or domestic partner are restrained from:

1. removing the minor children of the parties from the state or applying for a new or replacement passport for those minor children without the prior written consent of the other party or an order of the court;
2. cashing, borrowing against, canceling, transferring, disposing of, or changing the beneficiaries of any insurance or other coverage, including life, health, automobile, and disability, held for the benefit of the parties and their minor children;
3. transferring, encumbering, hypothecating, concealing, or in any way disposing of any property, real or personal, whether community, quasi-community, or separate, without the written consent of the other party or an order of the court, except in the usual course of business or for the necessities of life; and
4. creating a nonprobate transfer or modifying a nonprobate transfer in a manner that affects the disposition of property subject to the transfer, without the written consent of the other party or an order of the court.

You must notify each other of any proposed extraordinary expenditures at least five business days before incurring them and account to the court for all extraordinary expenditures made after these orders are effective.

WARNING—IMPORTANT INFORMATION

California law provides that, for purposes of division of property upon dissolution of a marriage or domestic partnership or upon legal separation, property acquired by the parties during the marriage or domestic partnership in joint form is presumed to be community property. If either party to this action should die before the jointly held community property is divided, the language in the deed with which the parties took title does not necessarily determine the character of the property.

☒ I have read the Standard Family Law Restraining Orders (page 2) and understand they apply when the Petition is filed.
